

Quinto Die mensis Junii Anno Domini millesimo sexieniesimo vigesimo primo

Whelk Day the provest Baylies counsel and Deacones of Crafts of the burgh of Dundie comperit in the Counsell house thair of Taking Consideratione that a great number of persons with their families and households resort Daylie fra Landward to this burgh and setles yr residence and abode within burgh. Some makes malt brewis Aill and tappes and sells the samen with als great Libertie and Immunitie as the frie burgesses and brother of Gild of the said burgh notwithstanding that the saids persons be unfreemen and noways received in the number of the frie burgesses of ye said burgh To the great hurt and prejudice of ye Comon wealth.

And to ye wrak and poorthraw of ye fmilies of many poor burgesses of ye said burgh who hes noe oyr trade nor calling to Leve be nor ye brewing and selling of aill to the furniture of ye Inhabitants of this burgh and his Majesties Leidges resortand yrto.

Theirfoir and for remeid of the samen hes Statute and ordainit And be thir presents all with Comon consent, Statutes and Ordaines that noe persone heirafter of whatsoever qualitie shall be suffered or permittit To make malt or to brew aill and to sell and tapp ye samen within the Liberties of this burgh except friemen and burgesses of the said burgh allennery. and in caise any persone who is not ane frieman and burgess of the said burgh shall happen at any time for heire after to brew and sell aill within the Liberties of ye said burgh that they and ilk ane of them shall pay to ye reparation of ye Comon workes of ye said burgh Ane fine and unlaw of ..... and be Discharded for abusing of ye said trade and calling within ye said burgh.

Heirafter and it is declared that this present Act shall not be extended to these who hes become actuall brewars and sellers of Aill within this burgh befor ye making of this pnt Act. The above written Act being signed in the principall Counsell booke of the said burgh by ye Provost Baylies Dean of Gild and remanent members of counsel of ye said Burgh, Deacone conveyener and Deacons of Crafts yrof then for ye tim is Extracted by Me -
G. Wedderburne. Cls.