REPRESENTATION OF NINE INCORPORATED TRADES AT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Reference was made to the fact that Mr. William Clark as Convener of the Nine Incorporated Trades and Andrew Miller as Deacon of the Flesher Incorporation had attended the General Assembly in Edinburgh last week as representing the Nine Incorporated Trades. It was pointed out that this is, so far as known, the first time in history that the Nine Incorporated Trades been represented at the Assembly by two butchers, and it was unanimously agreed to record this fact in Minutes.
